GREENBERG GROSS LLP ELEVATES ATTORNEY MATTHEW S. INGLES TO PARTNER

LOS ANGELES (January 27, 2020) – Greenberg Gross LLP, a high-stakes litigation boutique, is pleased to announce the elevation of Matthew S. Ingles to Partner in its Los Angeles office.

Mr. Ingles focuses his practice on complex business litigation, arbitration, and appeals, and has significant experience in matters involving breach of contract, fraud, unfair competition, defamation, real estate, class action defense, and intellectual property. Since joining the firm in 2018, Mr. Ingles has been involved in several high-profile cases publicized in The New York Times, Washington Post, and Hollywood Reporter.

“The firm’s top-flight clients regularly turn to Matt to handle their most demanding legal challenges, and he consistently exceeds expectations,” said Co-Founder and Managing Partner Alan A. Greenberg. “Matt is a stellar litigator with an incredible work ethic,” added Co-Founder Wayne R. Gross. “He is quickly developing a reputation as a rising star in the Los Angeles legal community.”

“I would put our team at Greenberg Gross up against any law firm in the country,” said Ingles. “I am thankful for the opportunity to work with such an outstanding group and to represent our clients in their most important matters. I am very excited to become a partner of the firm.”

Prior to joining Greenberg Gross, Mr. Ingles practiced commercial litigation in the Los Angeles and New York offices of Orrick, Herrington & Sutcliffe LLP, where he represented prominent technology companies and financial institutions. He began his career as a prosecutor in the Kings County District Attorney’s Office in Brooklyn, New York, where he served as a first-chair trial attorney.
